

HO, HO, HO!!

Merry Christmas! Everyone up here at the North Pole has been very busy getting ready for our big night. The elves are finishing the toys, the reindeer are getting the sleigh ready, and I'm making my list and checking it twice. That's why I'm writing!

I found your name on my Nice List this year. I'm so proud of you! I love bringing toys to kids who are nice to others and always practicing their good behavior.

Mrs. Claus has been baking Christmas cookies for all the elves because they've been working so hard to get all the toys finished. I'm going to do my best to bring you something you really like. But remember that the best part of Christmas is sharing time with people who love you. The gifts I bring are just an extra treat!

Rudolph and all the reindeer are looking forward to visiting your home on Christmas Eve. Rudolph says he would really like it if you would leave out some carrots and cookies for us because we all get hungry delivering so many toys all around the world.

Have a very merry Christmas!

Love,

Santa
